

David Elroy Knuckles, 68, of Prosperity, died Sunday, February 4, 2018, at Palmetto Health Richland.

Born on February 18, 1949, in South Charleston, WV, he was a son of the late Clark Wesley and Juanita May Ball Knuckles. He was retired from Pleasant Craft Marine. Mr. Knuckles loved hunting, fishing and gardening.

He is survived by his wife, Zenda Reuna Williams Knuckles; sons, David E. (Hope) Knuckles, Jr. of Newberry, Michael Allen (Alysia) Knuckles, Sr. and Timothy Craig (Shannon) Knuckles both of Prosperity; a daughter, Amy Beth (Jon) Knuckles of Newberry; sisters, Sharon Charlotte (Ronnie) Godfrey of Charleston, WV and Karen Kay Crouch of TN; brothers, Gary Wayne (Melissa) Knuckles of South Charleston, WV and John Wayne Knuckles of TX; sisters-in-law, Shelia Knuckles and Mary Knuckles; thirteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his siblings, Loretta Knuckles, Clark Wesley Knuckles and John William Knuckles.

A private family gathering will be held.

A note of remembrance may be written to the family by clicking the "Add Comment" link below.